Drink

Semi Precious Weapons

Wish I had a drink
So I don't have to think about you
Wish I had a drink
So I don't have to think about youWish I had a drink
So I don't have to think about you
Wish I had a drink
So I don't have to think about youOur love keeps getting broken, broken
With every girl you open, open
I keep wishing and a-hoping, hoping
You'll end it all, end it allMy bed keeps getting bigger, bigger
Every time you pull your trigger, trigger
Their love, it always lingers, lingers
End it allWish I had a drink
So I don't have to think about you
Wish I had a drink
So I don't have to think about youWish I had a drink
So I don't have to think about you
Wish I had a drink
So I don't have to think about youDrink, drink
DrinkYou're lucky you're good-looking, looking
'Cause with all the hearts you've tooken, tooken
Our love it should be shooken, shooken
I can't stop, I can't stopI always wanna leave you, leave you
Until I finally see you, see you
And then I kinda need you, need you
I can't stopWish I had a drink
So I don't have to think about you
Wish I had a drink
So I don't have to think about youWish I had a drink
So I don't have to think about you
Wish I had a drink
So I don't have to think about youWish I had a drink
So I don't have to think about you
Wish I had a drink
So I don't have to think about youWhoa, whoa
I can't wait to let you go
Whoa, whoa
I can't wait to tell you no
Whoa, whoa

I can't wait to let you go
Whoa, whoa
I can't wait to tell you noDrink, drink
Drink, drink
Drink, drink
DrinkWish I had a drink
So I don't have to think about you
Wish I had a drink
So I don't have to think about youWish I had a drink
Wish I had a drink
Wish I had a drink
