Not the Same

KYLE

Not the same, we are not the same
Not the same, we are not the same
Don't know your name, I don't know your name
We're not the same, we are not theNot the same, we are not the same
We're not the same, we are not the same
Not the same, we are not the same
We're not the same, we are not the sameThey creepin' right, creepin' left and right
They need the light, them boys used to lyin'
We're not alike once you look inside
I'm getting my, they just getting by
Facts, I am not the rest of the pack
I am not a random n-, veteran to rap
I know how to do something nobody can
Take a throwaway track, turn it to a plaque, whoa
Magic, it's magic
Law of attraction I guess I'm attractive
Take the baddest then vanish
If I can think it, I can have it all
Not the same, we are not the same
Not the same, we are not the same
Don't know your name, I don't know your name
We're not the same, we are not the
Not the same, we are not the same
We're not the same, we are not the same
Not the same, we are not the same
We're not the same, we are not the sameWhat they call you, that's a different name
I don't have to buy flowers
I guess I got superpowers
I got this game on easy
My blessings stay on repeat
Got money in my emails
And all my homies CC'ed
Yeah
Don't hesitate
Every time I check for the check it ain't never late
Million dollar mindset boy you gotta meditate
I'ma level up til I levitate (levitate)
Not the same, we are not the same
Not the same, we are not the same

Don't know your name, I don't know your name
We're not the same, we are not the
Not the same, we are not the same
Not the same, we are not the same
Don't know your name, I don't know your name
We're not the same, we are not the
