Oceans

Lessdmv - Oceans

I can't see a single light but i'm just waiting for you It's so hard to tell apart the different faces of god

Hold me like the sun
to my wounds
and so warm i'm writing love
on your bones

I'll tell you a secret
Now i can't hide my sould not from you Your lips are coming down and then my breath it's just gone

Alive or dead
Cold or warm
We will stay here I'm begging you to come and

Hold me like the sun
to my wounds
and so warm i'm writing love
on your bones
It's a lovely way to recall

Oceans why?
My body is coming back to Oceans Why?
My body is coming back to
and start again
Yeah again.
