Get a Life

Fire In Fairyland

this is so awesome
I can hardly believe it's true I finally found something and guess what this song's not for youon the bottom of this bottle it says go and get a life said and done, I have become someone I can stand forI have become someone I can trust inlets get this straight I've overcome my darkest shadows escaping my fate was all I ever needed in the enddon't tell me what to do don't tell me what to think I'm in charge here yeah I will have faith in melet's get down to businesss no more time for me to waste enjoying every moment without a sense of hasteall the ones who won't back me up are standing in my wayI will have faith in me
