

What You'll Do When I'm Gone

Waylon Jennings

Staring at the door
Every night I'm thinking more and more
About walkin' out that door I know someday I will Though I'm standing still someday I will
I know someday I will As right as we were, we are wrong
Nothing's going to change what we've done
They only thing that keeps me from going, baby
Is wondering what you'll do when I'm gone There's something in your eyes
I swear your eyes are telling me goodbye
Goodbye's in your eyes You can call it cries
My thoughts of someone else here by your side
It's killin' me inside As right as we were, we are wrong
Nothing's going to change what we've done
They only thing that keeps me from going, baby
Is wondering what you'll do when I'm gone Staring at the door
Every night I'm thinking more and more
About walkin' out that door
