

Sleeping With the Dog (2006 Remastered Version)

Jethro Tull

Her love is like a candle: you light it up at night.
Her heart is like a pack of cards: one chance to guess it right.
Sometimes I do.
She's got a tongue like a viper, but she can whisper like a dove.
Soft touch like brushed velvet: till she hits you from above.
And sometimes she does.
She leaves me breathing: down like a fallen log.
Just when I feel like dancing
I wake up sleeping with the dog.
And it goes: sleeping with the dog. I have to guess at the mysteries of her unfathomable soul.
Guess when the time seems right to make a broken spirit whole and that time is due. C'mon. She leaves me breathing: down like a fallen log and just when I feel like dancing
I wake up sleeping with the dog.
And it goes: sleeping with the dog.
