

I Can't Stop Crying

Will Grove-White

I can't stop crying
Over you,
Can't think of smiling
Now I'm so sad and blue.

You're always in my dreams
But honey, now it seems
That our love affair
is through.

I can't stop praying
You'll come back home
Can't understand
Why you left me all alone.

This pain inside my heart
Is tearing me apart,
'Cause my beautiful bird
Has flown.

I can't stop crying
Over you, baby girl.
I can't think of smiling
Now I'm so sad and blue.

You're always in my dreams
But honey, now it seems
That our love affair
Is through.

I can't stop crying
Over you,
Can't think of smiling
My heart belongs to you.
