

My Other Gun

Ne-Yo

Ohh

Hold me down with a thousand pounds on her shoulder
Lift me up despite the stones, rocks, boulders
Soft and strong, right and wrong, anxious, patient
In her eyes ride or die ain't just a statement no So much more than ride or die
She'll get on the trigger or take the wheel and drive
And I know if situations go arise
Then she's right there in the holster by my side That's my other gun
That's my other eye
That's who got my back
When the world ain't on my side
She my other gun
Should I go to war
Holding me down
That's what she there for She my other gun, yeah, yeah
She my other gun Put me first even when I'm on my moment
Knows me well can't front her she see right through me
You rub my hand hold me when this world is troubling
Settle for that long you'll never want or need for nothing girl So much more than ride or die
She'll get on the trigger or take the wheel and drive
And I know if situations go arise
Then she's right there in the holster by my side That's my other gun
That's my other eye
That's who got my back
When the world ain't on my side
She my other gun
Should I go to war
Holding me down
That's what she's there for She's always locked and loaded
Ready for anything
She got me fully covered
I'm glad she's on my team
Custom grip perfect fit
All she spits is heat
Her and me, all I need
Makes us hard to beat, oh
My other gun, oh That's my other gun
That's my other eye
That's who got my back

When the world ain't on my side
Said she my other gun
Should I go to war
Holding me down
That's what she's there for
She my other gun, oh Said she my other gun
And I love you, said I love you baby
Said I love said, I love you baby
