heroine slow

Pencey Prep

Heroine Slow(8x)I turned to you, you turned away.
From everything that I'd never say.
Wrote it down, but tore it up.
Recycled dreams could never live up to the name that haunts my every waking day.
and time slips by when high expectations leaving me be and I know that this day is worth it in every single breath I take in.Heroine Slow(8x)I turned to you, you turned away.
