Warmaster

Bolt Thrower

Throughout all time
Within the past, present and future
Man has sought to destroy
All that stood in our wayAs man fights man
In the epic struggle for survival
The warmaster shall reign
With oppression fed by a burning hateHatred of mankind, twisted within your mind
Corrupted by powers unknown, the downfall of this worldThe end of your life, beginning of human strife
Destruction of this crippled planet
Warmaster an inhuman prophetWarmaster
You shall obey all that he commandsHatred of mankind within your mind
Corrupted by powers unknown, the downfall of this worldNow once more... we rise to fall
Man's destruction... in the final war
Nothing's left... of the human race
The planet's end... our destiny oblivion
