Addicted

Juvenile

This is brought to you courtesy of Brian McKnight
This is a love, you're just addicted to what's addictive
Yes, you are, baby
I made a big mistake and now you say I'm breakin' your heart
Well, well, well
This is a love, you're just addicted to what's addictive
I made a big mistake and now you say I'm breakin' your heart
Go on and tell 'em about it, J, tell 'em about it, J
Now when we first met I told you, it was a you thang and it's a me thang Whatever's goin' on in your life I don't have nuttin' to do with that
You go ahead on and do what you do, y'knahmsayin'?
And whatever's goin' on in my life
I'ma let that happen the way it's been happenin'
Don't change what's goin' on, y'knahmsayin'?
And when we fuck that ain't got nuttin' to do with the rest of the world
You don't call me, I ain't gon' call you
When we hook up, we just hook up but oh no
You wan' take it all out of context
And you know what this really is
You know what the situation is, why you doin' that?
This is a love, you're just addicted to what's addictive
I made a big mistake and now you say I'm breakin' your heart
This is a love, you're just addicted to what's addictive
I made a big mistake and now you say I'm breakin' your heart
Now here we go again
You're scratchin' up my car, you're bustin' up all my windows
You're callin' my house, callin' my cell phone
I shouldn'ta never gave you my number anyway
But I thought you was my friend
I thought me and you was bigger than that, y'knahmsayin'?
But you done lost all that
You might as well just lose my number
And lose conversation from me, y'knahmsayin'?
When you see me in public, don't say nuttin' to me no mo'
'Cause you tryin' to wreck my life
And you know I got a lot goin' on in my life right now
I got responsibilities, you understand?
This is a love, you're just addicted to what's addictive
I made a big mistake and now you say I'm breakin' your heart

This is a love, you're just addicted to what's addictive
I made a big mistake and now you say I'm breakin' your heart
So what you got my name tattooed on yo' body?
I ain't tell you to go do that
You watchin' MTV and BET that's what you want
You got a lil' piece of that and you don't know how to act
You goin' crazy
You better get your mind together 'cause you know what this is
This is a love, you're just addicted to what's addictive
I made a big mistake and now you say I'm breakin' your heart
This is a love, you're just addicted to what's addictive
I made a big mistake and now you say I'm breakin' your heart
This is a love, you're just addicted to what's addictive
I made a big mistake and now you say I'm breakin' your heart
