Strangers

Maxeen

here come the critics oh to tear your heart wide open here come the lawyers billions for phone conversationyou got some talnet kid you're really going places i've heard it many times from all the empty facesdon't talk to strangersmy mona lisa early sunday morning i find you so incredibly boringyou got some talnet kid
i've heard it so many times from all you pretty facesdon't talk to strangers and you all look so strange to mehere come the critics oh
here come the lawyers
billions for phone conversation you got some talent kid you're really going placesi've heard it so many times from all the empty facesdon't talk to strangers and you all look so strange to me
