

Lonely Tonite

Duff McKagan

Do you remember walkin' hand in hand

Did you understand, well, I did
We used to listened to that song
"Are you lonely tonight?"

I think the king sang it
I'm lonely tonite

Yeah lonely tonight

That's right

I used to read you bedtime stories
I'm so lonely tonite

I'm so lonely, so lonely tonite
Remember you used to protect me
From my fright

Now I stand here with a bottle in My hand

Who cares? What's different?
Tonite Tonite
