In Flames

A sad song it was Through renewal it brought And a month seems sometimes shorter Than a half nights longingHidden and hard Are the reasons for war Polar twist, invert and fleaI can't dissolve This feeling of mine But patience will Unlock the doors And the maps of reasons Rewritten for me When the wait is over And the punishment's dueEach day I crawl To the hall of the giantsAnd I beg for mercy And I beg for mercy In vainOne night is a mare Two is worse How can I manage three? Each day I crawl To the hall of the giantsEach day I crawl To the hall of the giants
