Oxygen

Dirty Heads

Tornado, I see you coming around
Don't let go, you know I'm holding you down
People shouldn't change like the weather, man
People shouldn't change if they innocent
People act strange when it's getting out of beat
So let me be your oxygen

Please don't go, I will stay
When everyone is leaving and you're feeling strange
See them call, hear them say
Trying to bleed but your feeling's stretched
Oh woah, feel like you're living, but you might be better off dead
If you go and I'm not there
I'll be your oxygen
I'll be your oxygen
I'll be your oxygen
I'll be your oxygen, yeah

Domino, this well keeps knocking you down
Let them know, no one can push you around
Getting hard to breathe in the everland
Feels like you never see the sun again
Domino, this well keeps knocking you down

Please don't go, I will stay
When everyone is leaving and you're feeling strange
See them call, hear them say
Trying to bleed but your feeling's stretched
Oh woah, feel like you're living, but you might be better off dead
If you go and I'm not there
I'll be your oxygen
I'll be your oxygen
I'll be your oxygen
I'll be your oxygen, yeah

Laughing with these feelings in your head
They don't mean nothing, they don't mean nothing, no
Feeding off the words that they all said
They don't mean nothing, no

Please don't go, I will stay
When everyone is leaving and you're feeling strange
See them call, hear them say
Trying to bleed but your feeling's stretched
Please don't go, I will stay
When everyone is leaving and you're feeling strange
See them call, hear them say
Trying to bleed but your feeling's stretched
Oh woah, feel like you're living, but you might be better off dead
If you go and I'm not there
I'll be your oxygen
I'll be your oxygen
I'll be your oxygen
I'll be your oxygen, yeah
