

Tired Of Being Alone

Schiller

Once , you dreamed of me Twice, you wished that i'd pull you out you chose your life , and put me down still you don't understandTired of being alonewhat you have dreamed is not what i am so far
let me be the one
please understand me
how i am
but i don't want , to walk alone I need your hands to warm my soulTired of being alone Tired of being aloneI will do my best to become your love I'll try to fill the emptyness
in our hearts
oh so tired of being aloneTired of being alone I want to feel , I need to fall in love with you Tired of being alone
