

Free Man

Angie Aparo

Hey, wouldn't you wanna know
Everywhere that river flows to right now
I can show you how
'Cause someday you might wanna goSomeday you got nothing to show
For all your pain, for all your chains
I ain't saying it's the only way
But wouldn't you like to knowHow if feels to live like a free man
To give when there's nothing in your hand
Run like only the river can
Like a free manYou've only so many roads to choose
Sooner or later the ones you use
They all look the same
Someday you might feel the need
