

Witness the Change

Pete Shelley

[illegible]

Witness the change

Witness the change

Witness the change I have a feeling and I know it will never die

Part of the answer for asking the reason why

Out of the darkness the bright light surrounding me

I am a part of everything I touch and see I feel the sound of thunder and laughter

It's tearing me apart

I hope that you will remember

The echo of my heartWitness the change

Witness the change

Witness the change

Witness the change

Witness the change

Witness the change

Witness the change

Witness the change

Witness the change

Witness the change

Witness the change

Witness the change

Witness the change

Witness the change

Witness the change

Witness the change

Witness the change

Witness the change

Witness the change
