

The Boat Can Leave Now

KnowMads

yo, i don't know what you want from me but i can't love you it hurts me so deep hope you know most these nights i don't sleep waiting for someone to hold me girl i don't know what you want from me

but i can't love you it hurts me so deep
hope you know most these nights i don't sleep

you're the only girl i ever gave me soul to always honest i meant every word i told you you had me running barefoot wearing no shoes broke the news on the phone i had no clue cause the whole truth turned into the cold truth does his touch warm your heart when he holds you? i can't trust you, no i hardly even know you, anymore yo i thought we'd grow old, to-gether but the weather has changed and me and you know never the same so no way that we sharing the same soul forget the past cause its way to painful

but i can't love you it hurts me so deep
hope you know most these nights i don't sleep
waiting for someone to hold me (2x) i woke up from a dream saw his face you were naked in his bed he was taking my grace wouldn't tell me his name, you said it wasn't my place three days in a row no that aint a mistake so how'd his dick feel? how'd his lips taste? did you meet him at a frat shit faced? or was he just another undercover lover that you didn't wanna mention when we spoke to one another huh had me so crazy started therapy got the nerve to say you still wanna marry me? listen baby you need to find some clarity dont manipulate my feelings that aint fair to me i cant carry this pain i gotta let go tryin' to tell myself that you wasnt that special had me breathing in stress instead of oxygen told my mom im having suicidal thoughts again but you dont care you be acting like its just pretend and when i see you yo theres no way we can just be friends i didn't love myself i forgot how to realized i only could without you (2X)

girl i don't know what you want from me
but i can't love you it hurts me so deep
hope you know most these nights i don't sleep
waiting for someone to hold me (2X)

but i can't love you, you hurt me so deep
hope you know most these nights i don't sleep

hope you know most these nights i don't sleep
