For The Ocean

Finger Eleven

Without it I'm failing
My heart waits in the wings alone
The stages I go through
Keep coming time and time and time againDo you wonder how
I stay so complacentIt's like waiting for the ocean
To save you from the waves
When you're so far under
Silent, never moving and never movingYou've taken your timing
So flawless executing me
So fearless and hopeful
Can you imagine such a sceneDo you wonder how
I stay so complacentIt's like waiting for the ocean
To save you from the waves
When you're so far under
Silent, neverWaiting for the needle
To take away the pain
Until finally we numb
Our every boneDo you wonder, did you ever wonder
How I stay so complacent
I stay so complacentIt's like waiting for the ocean
To save you from the waves
When you're so far under
Silent, neverWaiting for the needle
To take away the pain
Until finally we numb
Our every bone, our every bone
