

Heaven

Sven Hammond Soul

It's a private celebration, for a love that can't be denied.
Cause you and I, we fit together,
like the day to the night. And when we touch,
all of heaven is open.
And all of the angels up above,
they start humming a song.
Heaven say:[Chorus]
Heaven is singing a song.
Heaven is singing a sweet love song.
Heaven is singing a song,
a song for you and I. I've never, I've never been so in lust, like I'm with you.
I ain't ashamed to confess,
that I keep calling out your name, even when you ain't around. Everybody knows, everybody knows, ain't no other girl, can take your place.
Even though they try.
Cause I know God sent you to me, girl,
so I ain't gonna put up a fight.
I ain't gonna fight this love, girl.
Now heaven say:[Chorus]
Heaven is singing a song.
Heaven is singing a sweet love song.
Heaven is singing a song,
a song for you and I.[Bridge]
Baby, let's do the dance,
to the hymn of a holy romance,
that's sanctified from above.
As all of creation sings,
the words to this love song,
That's formed on this heavenly symphony. Hey baby! [Chorus]
Heaven is singing a song.
Heaven is singing a sweet love song.
Heaven is singing a song,
A song for you and I. You're like a sweet love song to me.
