Better Now

RiiahWORLD

Intro
If you ever firms Someone better let me know
I want to know
So let me know
I gotta know
I need to know

Chorus
Couldn't replace all the love I haave for you
Whatever it takes I'll be getting over you
Left with no trace like what am I to do
Going crazy getting over you
Going crazy but I'm better now
Might be crazy but I'm better now
Call me me crazy but I'm better now
Might. Be crazy but I'm better now

Verse 1
If I had a problem you would tell me right
Only you can save me if the bell be right
If you do not feel me then your belly might
Cus I go real deep just like I'm berry white
Enough about my distances I reach on several instances
Got me in detention I can't listen my attention is
All up on yo Instagram liking all yo pics and shit
Follow every niggaz that I see you in them mentions with Broken up and you stayed hot rubbing a nigga the wrong way
Ima buy a gun with a tank top run up and fuck up yo hombre
More shots then the battle of concord now your chest cavity concaved
For the pussy my nigga I fall slave I be thinking about you like always

Chorus

Verse two
If I had a problem you would tell me right
Transfer information like a terabyte
I hope you get syphLus box it up for Christmas
Pray then hallelujah have a marry night
How many times gotta call before you call back
How many niggas I follow be you fall back

Talking Keenan and kel but they ain't all that I been reading your mail but now I'm all mad
Drink liquor and sell with no barrack
Transportation got carjacked
Trying to find where your car at
And prolly find where my heart at

Break down
Going crazy
