The Only One

Riff Randells

Oh I love, oh I love, oh I love
What you do to my head
When you pull me upstairs
And you push me to bed
I love what you do to my head
It?s a mess out there!
Oh I love, oh I love, oh I love
What you do to my heart
When you push me back down
And then pull me apart
I love what you do to my heart
It?s the best, oh yeah
Oh I love, oh I love, oh I love
What you do to my lips
When you suck me inside
And you blow me a kiss
I love what you do to my lips
It?s so sweet in there
Oh I love, love, love, love
What you do to my hips
When you blow me outside
And then suck me like this
I love what you do to my hips
It?s the beat, oh yeah
You?re the only one I cry for
The only one I try to please
You?re the only one I sigh for
The only one I die to squeeze
And it gets better everyday, I play
With you it?s such a scream
Yeah it gets better everyday, I say
With you it?s so extreme
Yeah it gets wetter everyday, I stay
With you it?s like a dream
Oh I love, oh I love, oh I love
What you do to my skin
Please slip me on
And slide me in
I love what you do to my skin

It?s a passion oh yeah
Oh I love, love, love, love
What you do to my bones
When you slide me up
And take me home
I love what you do to my bones
It?s the crush oh yeah
And it gets hazier anyway, I sway
Yeah it gets mazier every play, I say
With you it?s so extreme
Yeah it gets crazier everyday, I stay
What you do to me
