

Fly Away

Eden's Curse

So you dream to break away
So you strive to leave them all behind
    Try to run for a better life
Try to reach what you've always had in mind
    You say it's raining in your heart
        (raining in your heart)
    You feel the rage within your soul
        (rage within your soul)
    You say it's raining in your heart
        (raining in your heart)
    Feeling's you can't control
    Fly away - on the wings of wonder
To find the day - where the magic lives on and on Fly away - from the rain and thunder
Start again - when you'll find a brand new dawn
    Is that the life that you wanna live
    No hope, no thrill, no feelings at all
        And all the love you wanna give
    Has left you climbing all of these walls
