

Roses and Wine

Diego Garcia

Ever since it started
Girl I always knew
From that moment
That I would love you
It was Sunday morning
    The bells in the air
As I caught the shadow
    Of your long red hair
    Roses and Wine
    Crimson and Thyme
    Roses and Wine

    You talk so slowly
    In the morning rain
I'll remember forever
    Our faiths the same
I knew from that moment
    All things must end
    There is no reason
    For us to pretend
    Roses and Wine
    Crimson and Thyme
    Roses and Wine

    Tell me you love
    That's all I need to hear
Then I'll have no need to stay and I can disappear
    Tell me you love me
    You've never said before
Even when we were together I was never sure
    I'm waiting
    I'm waiting
    Roses and Wine
    Crimson and Thyme
    Roses and Wine

    Give me 50 reasons
I'll give you 50 more
    But you never listen

as you shut the door
Should I wait forever

For your return
Should I wait forever

Will I ever learn
Will I ever learn

Roses and Wine
Crimson and Thyme
Roses and Wine

Roses and Wine
Crimson and Thyme
Roses and Wine
