Buried Alive

Funker Vogt

I feel the walls too close to me and everything here's black I can already reach the ceiling although I lie on my backthere's no way to get outside there's hardly space to move I don't know how I came in I don't have any provechorus: so what has happened to me I'm much to blind to see oh please give me a clue what I have to do is it already too late no chance to open the gate is this really the end time to reach a new land?I don't know what has happened and why I am in here don't even know who I am everything is much too near
