Pussy Cat

DJ Yoda

No this is too much man, too much
I mean this track's running too long
We gotta end this band
I mean this pussy cat's gotta bug out, dig?

The other day I seen her
Creeping on the cooker top
But I just not got the heart to tell that cat to stop
Well I sure do love that pussy
Love that pussy cat

Why don't you come here kitty?
Scratch my back

Kitty goes a running
when the dogs they bark
I wish my kitty'd come back
Before it gets too dark

Oh I love that pussy
I love that pussy cat
why don't you come here kitty
Come scratch my back

One day I watched my kitty
Stumble to the yard
She caught that lonesome sparrow
Cleanly off it's guard

Yeah I love that pussy
I love that pussy cat
why don't you come here kitty
Come scratch my back

Come scratch my back
Come scratch my back

Come scratch my back
Come scratch my back

Come scratch my back
Come scratch my back

Come scratch my back
Come scratch my back

Come here little kitty
Rest upon my knee
Shut your eyes stop purring that sweet sounding melody

Yeah I love that pussy
I love that cat
Now come here kitty
Scratch my back

Come scratch my back kitty

Come scratch my back
Come scratch my back

Come scratch my back
Come scratch my back

Dig it man - miaow!

(Don't mind
That's the end
That's the end
Go on
That's the end)
