

Alone in My Bed

JbDubs

I have to trust that you love me
I have to tell myself over and over again
I cannot stop checking my phone When will he text me back When will he call me backCHORUS:
Or will he fall asleep in someone else's arms Dealing kisses to undeserving lips
And at the same time I would whisper I love you forever, foreverBut I'm alone in my bed, bed, bed, bed, bed, bed...
alone in my bed, bed, bed, bed, bed, bed... (x2)
alone in my bed (x2)
But I'm alone in my bed, bed, bed, bed, bed, bed...
alone in my bed, bed, bed, bed, bed, bed... (x2)
alone in my bed (x2)Yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah
yeah
yeah
Don't let me downIt's like I don't remember how to blink
The thoughts that barrel through my mind block out my instinct
As I grow dumber with my fear
If only you were here
I wish that you were hereCHORUSI must keep myself busy and distracted Or I will dig myself a grave of thoughts And there's no peaceful rest with this hurt in my chest Gotta trust that you would die before you'd leave me
With every last chance of ever breathing
You would tell me how much you love me you love meCHORUS
