

Cops and Donuts

NOFX

When I was on the freeway, doing 70 all drunk He came up to my window, and shouted to get out He came up to my car, I thought up a little trick A copper pulled me over, and I thought that I was sunk I took a donut, jelly filled, and put it on a stick So I threw it out the window and he ate it off the floor So I quickly took the donut and I shoved it in his mouth So I drove away, he shouted for some more Cops love donuts Cops and donuts Cops and donuts Cops love donuts
