

Infinite Stillness

Orcas

Tell the fields that I will seed them
& tell your words that I won't read them
Remind the caves that I'll unseal them
And kill lights cos I can't see them
Halt your barratry & seize your will
It's a year of heavy winds
It's a year of stillness
Oh it doesn't matter if there's a god
No it doesn't matter if there's no god
Tell the peaks that I will scale them
And tell the hollows that I won't fail them
Remind the liars that I'll upbraid them
& wrest my fears once I've allayed them
Oh this is all we have & all there was
It's a year of heavy winds
It's a year of infinite stillness
Oh it doesn't matter if there's a god
No it doesn't matter if there's no god
