

People of the Blaze

Acrania

The tide rises, the sun declines
Waves have witnessed the past of time Fire
On the same day sun never sets twice
Enter inland Conquest is mine Beating and Lying
Unconsciousness feeds on fear and nonce
Unwritten history is tattooed on us
Murder and Crying
Stars remain appearing face to face Reminding us who we are People of the blaze
People of the blaze
People of the blaze
People of the blaze
And we are nothing... Dancing at the rythm of the flame
Life is unfair, just play the game
Desire
Why have you forsaken me? Floating with the sea
Letting the flood tide take me
All the pyramids fall apart
Denying all the cyclical time But what if they are right?
And we are condemned by the past
Freedom
Let me not give up on you But I, challenging time
I will survive the night of five hundred years
I deny, I refuse
This invisible history of usurpation and abuse
Beating and Lying
Unconsciousness feeds on fear and nonce
Unwritten history is tattooed on us
Murder and Crying
Stars remain appearing face to face Reminding us who we are People of the blaze
People of the blaze
People of the blaze
People of the blaze
