Stranger Than Fiction

Joe Jackson

Please mister can't you help me try to find my baby's house
It's three in the morning in the pouring rain
I can't find the house and i forgot the number
But I gotta give her these roses to relieve her painDon't laugh, just tell me you've been there before
So we fight but we fight every evening
And I tell you every morning I just love her more
And life goes on, filled with disasters and frictionAnd life can be strange
But love can be stranger than fiction
Only love can be stranger than fiction
Excuse me operator, tell me what time it isMe and my lover been in bed all day
I think I strained a muscle
I didn't know I had
And tell me what day it is anywayDon't laugh, just tell me you hear what I say
I love her so much I don't even know what planet I'm on Love her so much I wish she'd just go away
And life goes on, filled with bizarre contradictionsAnd life can be strange
But love can be stranger than fiction
Only love can be stranger than fiction
I know that sometimes love goesBut sometimes it comes back to getcha
And when love grows
It grows like a flower or grows like a tumor
Love shows that God has a sense of humorLife goes on, ever immune to prediction
And life can be strange
But love can be stranger than fiction
Only love can be stranger than fiction

Songwriters
JACKSON, JOEPublished by Lyrics Â© Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/