Suspicion

The Originals

(Baby, suspicion keeps us apart)
(Baby, suspicion keeps us apart)Please don't say no again
Can't we be more than just friends?
Someone has broken your heart
Why let the past keep us apart?I know how you feel
'Cause I've suffered the same ordeal
But now I know the laws of love
I can never hurt you, loveBaby, suspicion in your heart
I know suspicion's keeping us apart
Suspicion in your mind
Baby, suspicion makes you blindThe fear that you have of me
It's unfair, why should it be?
How long must we go on
Needing each other yet being alone?
Just put your faith in me
I'll show you how sweet my love can be
I'll stand beside you, love
Oh, you know I'll even guide you, loveBaby, suspicion's in your heart
I know suspicion's keeping us apart
Suspicion in your mind
I know suspicion makes you blindYou've gotta trust somebody someday
You can't live alone, I won't have it this way
I'll be a-pounding, pounding at your door
'Cause one day you'll open up the door, I'm sureBaby, when your love comes down
I'll be there, where I can be found
You're afraid of me today
But soon you'll see things my waySuspicion's in your heart
I know suspicion's keeping us apart
Suspicion in your mind
I know it's there haunting me all the timeYou've gotta trust somebody someday
You can't live alone, I won't have it this way
Baby, I'll be a-pounding, pounding at your door
'Cause one day you'll open up the door, I'm sureDarling, suspicion's in your heart
I know suspicion keeps us apart
