

All the Blues

BoDeans

Can't seem to get it started
Can't seem to light the fuse.
Can't find the energy that I will need to use.
Just want to lay around this dusty musty place like Miss Haversham.
Woke up one morning and I just didn't give a damn.
So sick and tired of this person that I am.
Don't think that I can make it,
don't think that I can fake it,
such a sham.
Leave me alone, let me just lay here.
Leave me alone, let me just stay here.
I've got all the blues today.
I've got all the blues today.
When I was young I never thought I'd end up this way
My heart was always looking forward to a better day.
I wonder if it's madness
Cuz now it's only sadness that I crave.
So many things can go wrong
Just trying to do what's right
My candle blew out
in the middle of the night.
And in this darkness
I'm just trying to make it home
but I'm lost in flight.
Leave me alone, let me just lay here.
Leave me alone, let me just stay here.
I've got all the blues today.
I've got all the blues today.
Leave me alone, let me just lay here.
Leave me alone, let me just stay here.
I've got all the blues today.
I've got all the blues today.?
