

Bar at the End of the World

Kenny Chesney

There's a trail of smoke comin' out of a bottle
If you look real close, you can see it right there
A little tin roof bar down a path you have to follow
From a treasure map with the edges burnt from a few too many beers
We'll pull the ropes off the boat
We'll throw 'em up on the dock
We'll let the stars be our God
No we don't need no clock
We'll set sail
Yeah, I see you there wind in your hair and that t-shirt on
Dead man tell no tales
It's like nowhere else
You've ever been and we'll write your name on a dollar bill
Put it on a wall it'll still be there
Next time we come back girl, to the bar at the end of the world
In that old sea shell, you can hear the ocean
You can hear the waves crash whisper in your ear
A little glow in the night, it's the last place open
And the house drink is a beautiful thing called 'make me disappear'
We'll pull the ropes off the boat
We'll throw 'em up on the dock
We'll let the stars be our God
No we don't need no clock
We'll set sail
Yeah, I see you there wind in your hair and that t-shirt on
Dead man tell no tales
It's like nowhere else
You've ever been, we'll write your name on a dollar bill
Put it on a wall it'll still be there
Next time we come back girl, to the bar at the end of the world
There ain't no empty glasses, they're playing drift away
That's where the magic happens, back up in that little bay
We'll set sail
Yeah, I see you there wind in your hair and that t-shirt on
Dead man tell no tales
It's like nowhere else
You've ever been, we'll write your name on a dollar bill
Put it on a wall it'll still be there
Next time we come back girl, to the bar at the end of the world
To the bar at the end of the world
The end of the world

Songwriters

J.T Harding, Aimee Mayo, David Lee Murphy

Published by Lyrics © Warner/Chappell Music, Inc. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <https://damnyrics.com/>