

Where Did I Go?

Justin Currie

I love to hurt you without you ever knowing
I could desert you without you ever seeing me going
And all the monsters in your nightmares showed,
You could see me underneath my cloak
Do you know? Do you know?
Baby, where did I go?

And in the mornings, baby right before you woke
I would ask things that I never spoke
Does she know? Does she know?
Baby where did I go?

Maybe I was afraid to see you cry
May you didn't need a cry
Maybe I can tell such a brilliant lie

I loved to hurt you but you never felt a blow
I could kiss you and still you'd never know
Baby, where did I go?
