

There She Goes Again

James Blunt

From the chapel to the parking lot
All the Scriptures that she had forgot
Memories so overwrought
De murder Adieu for tonight
Never been such a delight
To make a human sacrifice
Can meet in the alleyway
You've got this occupation
And obligations to
Be sure that he suffers
Be sure that he fights
Say goodnight
Say goodnight (say goodnight)
She feels no contrite
[Chorus:] This won't be the first to last, it's just about time
When it goes by so fast
When dealing with the perfect crime
Wait by the balery led over to a charade
Wait for the cue
And strike with dismay
The night is young at the cabaret
She makes sure her hair won't shake
To hesitate it's no mistake
Shhh (ahh)

But pressure adds as her hands sweat
It's all procedure it's a set
He could see her silhouette
Don't run tonight
It's out of his hands tonight
Her fingers on the trigger what a pleasant surprise
The look in her eyes
The demonic look in her eyes
Tell the whole story it's one simple line
(one simple line)
The job was a sight
[Chorus:] This won't be first to last it's just about time
When it goes by so fast
When dealing with the perfect crime

Wait by the balery led over to charade
Wait for the cue
And strike with dismay
There she goes again (There she goes agian)
There she goes again (There she goes agian)
There she goes again (gan gan gan)
Without a trace the scene was left with hints of your grace
And don't repent, the past has foregone time to move on (move on)
Till you're next in tombs to rot
