Old Soul

Nosoyo

OLD SOUL

One touch
This is so familiar
You just hand it over
Not a word on how much
Time weâ€™ve lost
Weâ€™re here and thatâ€™s enough

Knowing weâ€™ll stay together
Thereâ€™ll be no surprises
No illusions or compromises yeah

Old soul
Seems like weâ€™ve been here before
In such a different life
But now the time is right
To meet an old soul

And I know all these fears are around wherever you gaze
Bad news above like clouds
That wrap around your head all day

No matter whatâ€™s next
Weâ€™ll be fine
By tomorrow itâ€™s just weather
Against windows and we know itâ€™s passing by

Old soul
Seems like weâ€™ve been here before
In such a different life
But now the time is right
To meet an
Old soul
Seems like weâ€™ve been here before
In such a different life
But now the time is right
To meet an

Old soul

To meet an
Old soul

Old soul
Seems like weâ€™ve been here before
In such a different life
But now the time is right
To meet an
Old soul
Seems like weâ€™ve been here before
In such a different life
To meet an
Old soul
