Shine

Jonah33

How long has it been now since I called You by name?
Since I felt Your presence in the midst of all my pain?
How long has it been now that I tried it all my own way
I need to be broken, so I look to You and sayMake me shine, rekindle the flame within my soul
Renew my love for You, for You are the only one
That can make me shine like the sun
Rekindle the flame within my soul, make me shineYou long to save me, You're the author of my life
But without You or Jesus, I am not aliveMake me shine, rekindle the flame within my soul
Renew my love for You, for You are the only one
That can make me shine, make me shine, make me shine
Make me shine, make me shine like the sun
Renew my love for You, for You are the only one
