

Last Chance Lost

Joni Mitchell

    Last chance lost
    In the tyranny of a long goodbye
    Last chance lost
    We talk of us with deadly earnest eyes
    Last chance lost
    We talk of love in terms of sacrifice
        And compromise
    Last chance, last chance lost
    Last chance lost
    The hero cannot make the change
    Last chance lost
    The shrew will not be tamed
    Last chance lost
    They bicker on the rifle range
        Blame takes aim
    Last chance, last chance lost
