My Heart Still Beats

Maria Mena

You're holding me and I close my eyes
You're whispering and I start to cry
You feel so good, so beautiful
For as long as you live, don't let me goJust hold me, touch me, feel me
As long as you love me, reach for me and need me
If you could trust me and teach me, never let go of me
Because you're half of me, my heart still beatsI'm looking in the eyes, the eyes of love
And I hold your face and I see the sun
I taste your kiss, you touch my soul
And I'm feeling things I've never felt beforeJust hold me, touch me, feel me
As long as you love me, reach for me and need me
If you could trust me and teach me, never let go of me
Because you're half of me, my heart still beatsI'm feeling what they call pure love
I never knew feeling like this could exist inside of me
I'm soaring, emotions exploding
I don't want to live another day if you're not here with meJust hold me, touch me, feel me
As long as you love me, reach for me and need me
If you could trust me and teach me, never let go of me
Because you're half of me, my heart still beatsBecause you're half of me, my heart still beats
