

Never Give You Up

Amy Grant

There's never been a doubt
But sometimes I feel afraid
We need to talk it out
That always makes it okay Sometimes friends don't understand
The love I have for You
But everywhere I go, I know
I just want more of You I will never give You up Lord
Not in a million years
I will never give You up, never give You up
For as long as I live
I will never give You up Lord
Not in a million years
'Cause You have put this love inside my heart I know You know me well
You know it's struggle that's in my mind
But since You hold my heart
I'll leave the struggles behind I don't have to understand
This love I have for You
'Cause everywhere I go, I know
I just need more of You I will never give You up Lord
Not in a million years
I will never give You up, never give You up
For as long as I live
I'm so glad I found You, so glad I found You
Want to build my life around You
Oh, You've got to know
That I'll never let go of You, never let go Oh, I will never give You up Lord
Not for a million years
I will never give You up, never give You up
For as long as I live
I will never give You up Lord
Not for a million years
'Cause You have put this love inside my heart Never give You up Lord
For a million years
I will never give You up, never give You up
For as long as I live
I will never give You up Lord
For a million years
'Cause You have put this love inside my heart Never give You up Lord
For a million years

I will never give You up, never give You up
For as long as I live
