Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

My whole life counting dimes worried about uncertainty
So I roll the dice before I die, maybe get a little for me
I bet it, bet it all- threw everything into a pile Regret it got nothing at all, no guarantees, no pieces of the pie Got the eyes on you, black eyes on you ruin it for you if they could
Eyes on you, black eyes on you mansruin for his own good
Eyes on you, black eyes on you mansruin for his own good High life all the highlights covered on the plays of the day
Baked out, burnt right out of it, breath fried beyond repair
I tasted it, devoured it ballooned right out of sight
A done deal dealt out by fate scored myself a bite of non life
Got the eyes on you, black eyes on you ruin it for
you if they could
Eyes on you, black eyes on you mansruin for his own good
Eyes on you, black eyes on you ruin it for you if they could
Eyes on you, black eyes on you mansruin for his own good
Mansruin for his own good
Mansruin for his own good
Fucked out, fucked out of everything
Drained at the end of each day
A red cent, no pennies from heaven
Taken for a chump for life
Mansruin for his own good
Mansruin for his own good
Mansruin for his own good
