

My Ungrateful Heart

Sandi Thom

Would you lie would you lie lie lie in these lonely arms of mine

I wanna try I will try try try for this love one more time

Don't wanna lose you to the stars

I wish I'd told you from the start

Not to listen to my ungrateful heart.

Baby give me one more chance

And I will shoot down the moon for you

Darling you're my sweet romance

There's nothing that I wouldn't do.

So when you cry when you cry cry cry let me shoulder your tears

I'm gonna try I will try try try to hold on through the years

Don't wanna loose you to the stars

I wish I'd told you from the start

Not to listen to my ungrateful heart.

Baby, give me one more chance

And I will shoot down the moon for you

Darling, give me one last dance

And maybe our love can be true.

Would you lie would you lie lie lie in these lonely arms of mine

I wanna try I will try try try for this love one more time

Don't wanna loose you to the stars

And it's tearing me apart

Cos you listened to my ungrateful heart

You listened to my ungrateful heart

Oh you listened to my ungrateful heart.
