

A Story Of

Endanger

Strophe 1 They try to keep you small - afraid of losing their control

(you can't be, no you can't be)

But your will is getting strong - inside you feel the overcome

(you can be, yes you can be if you...) Strophe 2 They watch the moves you make - waiting for your big mistake

(you can't be, no you can't be)

but there is no turning back - once you ever made this step

(you can be, yes you can be if you...) Vocoder Don't let them tell you lies please open up your eyes don't let them tell you all that they want to Ref.: If you open your eyes

you will realise

they told you only lies and all that they desire
