We Two

Christine Fellows

All alone, on my own, since I walked out on you
I walked out on me, now it's gone
And you, what to do, there's so much time
And so many nights to get throughOh, why do we play, and why do we lose
It's a dangerous life we live, we twoWe are fools, we make all these rules
We make it so hard to find love, to feel free
To be fresh outta school and now, what of romance
Do we know that life is sweeter when we're taking a chanceSo why do we run, and why do we cry
It's a crazy life we live, you and ICarousels and wishing wells were the things we loved
To fly away in a big balloon was what she talked of, ohAlone, out on my own, I just wander the streets
And stare at the places we've known
And now, what of myself
Can I go on pretending a love for somebody elseOh, why do we play, and why do we lose
It's a dangerous life we live, we twoCarousels and wishing wells were the things we loved
Why did we play, why did we stay alone, we two
To fly away in a big balloon was what she talked of Why did we love and leave the memory of we twoNow she is gone, I'm left to carry on
