Two Lives

Ray Montford

Yeah
I got a split personality
Do I love me more than I love you?
And if you're gone, will I see clarity?
Or will I just feel like we got down fooled?
This could go anyway, this could end anyday
Should I listen to my heart or my friends, eh?
Or this could be happy days, our love won't evaporate
This could be just a phase we're going through
Two lives, living two lives
I don't know which side of me is where the truth lies
I'm living two lives, living two lives
I got two sides of me tryna do right
I got one on each shoulder, both saying, 'I told ya'
One is saying, 'go' and the other's saying, 'no, no, no'
Living two lives
Don't know which side of me is where the truth lies
Where the truth lies
Yo, I had a split personality
I thought I loved me more than I loved you
Don't make me beg like a charity
'Cause now I see me without you, won't do
This could go anyway, this could end anyday
Should I listen to my heart or my friends, eh?
Or this could be happy days, our love won't evaporate
This could be just a phase we're going through
Two lives, living two lives
I don't know which side of me is where the truth lies
I'm living two lives, living two lives
I got two sides of me tryna do right
I got one on each shoulder, both saying 'I told ya'
One is saying, 'go' and the other's saying, 'no, no, no'
Living two lives
Don't know which side of me is where the truth lies
Where the truth lies, lies
Two lives, living two lives
I don't know which side of me is where the truth lies
I'm living two lives, living two lives
Don't know which side of me is where the truth lies

Where the truth lies
Where's it gone?
Where the truth lies
Where'd you go?
Where'd you go, where'd you go?
Two lives, living two lives
Don't know which side of me is where the truth lies
Where the truth lies
