17 Days

Prince

Called you yesterday
You didn't answer your phone
The main drag is knowing that
You probably weren't aloneSo here I sit in my lonely room
Lookin' for my sunshine
But all I've got is two cigarettes
And this broken heart of mineSo let the rain come down
The rain come down
Let the rain come down, down
Let the rain come down
The rain come down
Let the rain come down, downYou've been gone 17 days
17 long nights
The main drag is knowing that
You're holding someone else tightI wanna to call you everyday
And beg you to be near me
But I know your head is underwater
I doubt that you could hear meSo let the rain come down
The rain come down
Let the rain come down, down
Let the rain come down
The rain come down
Let the rain come down, downHa, ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha
17 days
Ha, ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha
17 daysCalled you yesterday
You didn't answer your phone
If you're the one who's always lonely
Then I'm the one who's always aloneSo here I sit in my lonely room
Lookin' for my sunshine
All I've got is two cigarettes
And this broken heart of mineLet the rain come down
The rain come down
Let the rain come down, down
Let the rain come down
The rain come down
Let the rain come down, downLet the rain come down
The rain come down
Let the rain come down, down

(Why don't you answer your phone?)
Let the rain come down
The rain come down
Let the rain come down, down
17 daysLet the rain come down
The rain come down
Let the rain come down, down
17 days
