

The Paladin

Pilgrim

Cast out from the sky realm
From his kingdom in heaven
Sentenced to serve out his years
 Protecting the innocent
 And defending their honor
 And keeping the demons at bay
 Surveying the sigils
 For signs of weakness
 Guarding the portals to worlds
 My job is lonesome
 But I'll be a legend
 And humans will cry out my name
 I've come to rectify this land
 And purge you where you stand
 For every beast and man
 I'll come for every time I'm needed
 Until my works completed
 Suffering for my lord
