A Vision

Seapony

I never knew why
In the bright lit places
The sun in your eye
Couldn't see their faces
It's not my problem
So far away
Take me to the harbor
In the fog in the hazeWhere the stars are falling down
(I look around)
Where the stars fall on me
(The sun is falling over)
And the fire is all around
(You can't be found)
And the fire starts on me
(Become like any other)Wish for an endless
Every day I'm at peace
I wish it made sense
And I felt some relief
When the sky it wasn't blue
(All that you do)
And the night it was so black
(The waves will take you over)
You can feel a vision forming
(Apart from me)
You can feel like you're in awe
(Become like any other)
